1 LISTENING: How to find your way in Plymouth

George asks the way to the café. Find out how he can get there.

- a) Listen to the dialogue. Write the names of streets and buildings on the way in the boxes. Be careful: you do not need all of the boxes. Use a blue pencil.

George is here.

_____/4

- b) Listen to the dialogue again and draw the way on the map. Make sure George can still read the street names. Use a pencil of a different color, NOT RED!!!

2 READING: A weekend in Brighton

George Eliot, his dad and his friend Sundeep are in Brighton together. They are spending the weekend in a caravan. Brighton is very expensive – and their holiday too!
Read what they say and answer the questions.

- Mr Eliot: So, Sundeep. Are you having fun?
Sundeep: Oh, this is a great trip. Brighton is a fantastic place and I like the campsite and the caravan too. I never go camping with my family. 35
George: What are we doing tomorrow? Can we go to Brighton Marina? There's a cinema there that shows lots of films. And a bowling centre. 40
Mr Eliot: I don't know. This trip is very expensive. Our activities yesterday and today cost £120. 45
George: £120? So much?
Mr Eliot: Yes, well we went to the Brighton Sea Life Centre yesterday. Those tickets cost a lot. And we bought some presents in the aquarium shop too. And we went to the café. 50
George: But Dad, I really want to go bowling. Sundeep, do you like bowling too?
Sundeep: Well, no. But I like films.
Mr Eliot: I think we should go to the Royal Pavilion tomorrow. It's not expensive and we can take food for a picnic. 55
George: But it's just a big park. Not very exciting.
Mr Eliot: Ah, but there's a lake, so we can go swimming. 60
George: What do you think, Sundeep? Do you want to go swimming tomorrow?
Sundeep: Yes, that sounds good.
George: OK, Dad. You win. But can we go to the cinema after the lake? Please?
Mr Eliot: Well, OK. But we can go to a cinema in town, not the expensive cinema at Brighton Marina.
George: OK.
Mr Eliot: And then I can cook your favourite food.
George: Spaghetti? Yummy.
Sundeep: Oh, I like spaghetti too.
Mr Eliot: Good. I think we need to go shopping this evening. We need some food for the picnic and for dinner tomorrow. We need, er ... 350 grams of cheese, two bottles of milk ...
George: Some chocolate ...
- Mr Eliot: A bag of salad ...
George: Some chocolate ...
Mr Eliot: A tin of tomatoes, two packets of spaghetti ...
Sundeep: Yes, and some chocolate!
George: And biscuits. Two packets of biscuits. And let's get three bags of popcorn for the cinema too. Can we, Dad?
Mr Eliot: Maybe. Let's get the important food first!
